

Imagine falling in love with a midnight cosmic star and getting the chance to bring it home with you forever. Fairy tales are no longer mere folktales, but profound truths binding the heavens and humanity back together. Miraculously, the human collective, is waking up to the truth of who we are, guided by the powers that exist beyond and within the stars. Many new door ways of cosmic truth, have now granted humanity access, to take the cosmic plunge into exploring the vastness within our multidimensional blueprint.

The time for contact beyond the stars has come full throttle. Over the past five years, I have witnessed humanity's awakening to dormant super natural abilities, revealing the profound truth in the stars. My book aims to share this cosmic revelation with you. It is truly a magical time to be alive and I want everybody to experience it.

Despite the wonders I've experienced, I'm acutely aware of the trauma, setbacks and challenges plaguing humanity. Our world is chaotic, filled with tragedies. That's why I decided to share my cosmic wisdom now. Holding back serves no purpose when the world so desperately needs something good. As I often say, "God doesn't like ugly, so don't be ugly. Be pretty instead, because pretty is, as pretty does."

This cosmic intelligence I've encountered is like gold- it can transform madness into miracles. It's an invitation to embark on a magical cosmic journey. Remember watching Aladdin and dreaming of a magic carpet ride? Those dreams were often dismissed, but I challenge us to look at the skies and rediscover the magic all around us.

As adults, we've lost the innocence of childhood, immersed in a "real world" riddled with corruption, violence and suffering. However, I believe divine intervention is at hand. Prophecies are unfolding, even though humanity often misses the signals. I'm here to amplify that message.

God and his Angels are stepping in to rescue mankind from these apocalyptic times. Our spiritual sleep has created disconnection and discord with the most high. We are fighting a spiritual battle, that many are unaware of due to a lack of knowledge. Children's innocence has been shattered by ungodly societal systems, blinded by a matrix of deception -a war of frequencies between God's truth and satanic chaos. The construct of which this matrix system operates, has undoubtedly blinded and entrapped many souls.

My book, called the “The prophetic flip 666/999” is a 21st century apocalyptic guidebook on escaping the matrix soul trap. It teaches humanity how to transcend the 666 frequency of deception and embrace the 999 frequency of divine truth. The number nine symbolizes God’s chosen people who realign with Christ consciousness after over coming life's battles. Through the testimonies of the chosen, my book demonstrates the reality of healing, miracles and God’s love.

On the other hand, this matrix is controlled by a secretive elite pursuing power at humanity's expense. They have an opposite agenda for humanity so their authoritative legislation's are not based on truth, honesty and integrity for the people. But we are not alone in this fight. Galactic star beings and higher forces are assisting humanity's evolution. A cosmic alignment is opening energetic portals, illuminating truths that have been hidden for centuries.

These forth coming higher vibration energies will give humanity an opportunity to finally see the many truths that exist beyond the stars. The higher truth of humanity, that was once hidden behind the veil of evil forces and their shadows of ungodly illusions, will now be illuminated for all to see. Once we reveal these hidden secrets about who has been pulling the wool over humanity's eyes, they will finally see who we are, or power and our origins.

You may wonder how I know all of this stuff and if its really true. Since birth, I have not lived what you would call an ordinary life. For me, the word “extra-ordinary” seems more fitting. For years, this estranged life of mine had me scrambling for answers as to why I felt so otherworldly and different. Round whole, square peg kind of person.

Questions like, why do I have super-natural human abilities that others do not? When I explain my spiritual gifts and experiences to others, how come they cant relate to me? Why am so undoubtedly connected to the stars? Why do I think and respond differently to life? Why am I, a multidimensional being, who can connect with Angels and other inter dimensional beings, while others can not? Why have I always felt like an under cover agent, who observes humanity and for what purpose does it serve? Most important question of all, who am I really?

I thought by sharing my private life with other people, I could make a connection and get some answers. Surprisingly, it made me sound extremely weird, foreign and strange to them. But to me, my exotic life was completely normal. A lot of people seem to be scared and fearsome of these spiritual topics. It always startles me, as to why that was.

However, I now have more clarity than ever before. Having the opportunity to observe acts of God within the super natural, ignited a very powerful spiritual awakening. Because of that, everything makes sense now. Forty three years of challenges taught me invaluable lessons, guiding me to my purpose.

I understand that it takes the good, bad and ugly in order to find the truth of yourself, but let me just say this. Thank God and the heavens above, I made it out alive. Because now, we have a real magical and fascinating story to unravel here folks. When reading this book, do know that it has the power to reawaken sleeping souls, discover other dimensions and turn non-believers into believers when you read about who and what has the power to make that happen.

Once people realize who and what is waiting for our return, this becomes more than a story, but rather a revelation that can bridge the two worlds back together again. This is truly a miraculous time when the divine realm and the angelic kingdom can finally been seen by humanity on earth once again. My story offers wisdom and insights into spiritual truths that remain largely undiscovered. “The Prophetic Flip 666/999” serves as a guiding light for those lost in the darkness.

Cosmic intelligence is bringing forth new energies into our planet and to everyone who is open enough to receive it. Evolution is at play here and it is unfolding a prophecy that is over earth at this time. It is ordained by the higher power of divine law that a new era on humanity's timeline must occur now.

Many reincarnated ascended masters, earth angels, sages, star-seeds, prophets and ancient mystical seer’s souls that are back here on earth, are now awake and ready to help guide humanity through this massive awaking. The truth is, we are now transitioning into a new era- the Age of Aquarius or Golden Age- marked by higher vibrations and divine enlightenment. As a star-seed, my mission is to help humanity ascend by sharing cosmic knowledge through this book.

Now that I have finally arrived in the full truth of who I am. I can start answering, not only mine but other peoples questions. What you will find here in my book, is a timeline of when and how my super-natural stories began and how they magically unfold. Most importantly, it’s whats inside those stories, that will lead you into new worlds.

Yes, I am a star-seed, which initially is an old divine soul who was awakened by their galactic family to guide humanity. It’s just that, it had to happen in divine timing and not mine. Gods plan for us star-seeds was to initially forget everything we once knew before coming here to earth, because it served the purpose of losing our higher consciousness in order to regain it. We had to experience what hell on earth was like before we could reconnect back to God and the cosmos.

Our galactic family made sure we regained our memories, right in time before our big mission started here on earth. The reason they call us star-seeds is because when we finally awaken, the first thing we do is make contact with our galactic team whom reside within the stars. They then send us light codes and spiritual downloads so we can anchor those higher truths into the earthly grid. Then from there, humanity can receive this spiritual knowledge once it materializes into a physical form such as a book, music, poetry, public speaking, healing modalities, podcasts, whichever way us star-seeds can make it work. Pretty cool, huh?

These revelations will awaken humanity to the illusions of the matrix and realign them with God. We've seen how bad humanity is suffering and we know what they need and they need it now! We've had enough, so we are ready, experienced, prepared and fully equipped to help raise humanity's consciousnesses. We also provide remedies for their healing process. Our main goal is to help wake them up to the energies of this planet's ungodly illusions so that they themselves can awaken from this disguised reality (aka) the so called matrix.

There is no greater passion of mine than the passion I have for restoring people's faith in God, and within themselves. The skills and tools that I have, to complete this mission, are the sharpest tools I have ever had in my shed. I know their sharp because God sharpened them himself when he gave me a life that would challenge me to my wits' end. In-case anyone was wondering, I have an outstanding resume that shows how I acquired all my skills and what qualifies me to do this job.

(Pun intended) First off, I got a great start in life when I attended the most unscrupulous schools. Then when I got older, I got accepted into the University of hard knocks. Turns out, I was the fastest runner within all my classmates. Then for Gym, I thought it was a clever idea to sign up for their pole dancing classes at platinum showgirls night club. Because after all, outside beauty is most important, correct? Not! Anyways, to keep my GPA up, I bravely signed up with the Angel boot academy just to get a certificate in divine justice.

When it was all said and done, can you believe I graduated with a 4.0 in metamorphosis. My teachers ranked me number one in class, so I became their very own valedictorian. They told me, it's not about how you start, but it's about how you finish. Because they are so very proud of all of my accomplishments, they asked me to prepare a speech that would inspire others so, here I am.

My main goal is to humorously create my book that allows me to share my unique gifts, knowledge, wisdom and love before I depart this earth. Because it isn't all the ruby's, gold and diamonds in a graveyard that makes it the most richest place on earth. For, it's all the wealth, within the untold stories and unspoken knowledge that were never written. That is truly where the most expensive and valuable treasures lie here on earth and because of that, I am sharing my wealth with humanity and not with a 7 foot coffin, 6 feet under the ground.

The war on consciousness is no joke! Many people are lost. So, we are throwing them a rope. I would like to believe in the idea that nobody gets left behind. However, everybody has free will. It's a choice they will have to make on their own. But how will they accomplish this without the proper guidance or inspiration? This is the main reason I created my book. I have super-natural stories that will connect the dots for them.

Angels and star-seeds have created platforms on social media that brings forth communication from the holy spirit. The Angles have created a private sever for an elite operation. We use these platforms for humanity's healing purposes. Star-seeds provide this information through quantum channeling. Us star-seeds have the ability to translate the language of the divine. Utilizing our psychic abilities can be a catalyst for humanity. This allows them to understand where our super-natural abilities originate from.

People are very skeptical when discussing medium-ship and other physic abilities. Some people understand how the super-natural operates, while others do not. However, I would like to offer them a new perspective. I believe that when people discover how this alternate reality intertwines with us all, it will be the missing link they were searching for. It s not about convincing them. It's about sharing knowledge and experiences that they never had. Nobody likes to be forced.

We all come from different cultures that have established belief systems and other worldly views. The Angles would like to acknowledge this, but at the same time remind them, that in the end, it does not matter. For we all come from God, the creator all creation. Source energy is what binds all of existence under one consciousness. Under that one consciousness, many life inhabitants are structured and given purpose.

Pain, struggles and fear is what the lower planes of consciousness offer. I experienced this as well as many others. I offer my transparency, humility and authenticity within the dialog of my life stories. I am honored to demonstrate how all of my life's downfalls, turned out to be testimonies to a new profound faith in the end. People who struggle with finding a deeper understanding of why we suffer, can get more clarity and a much higher perception when reading my book. Earth school is just stepping stones into a beautiful, whole new world, just like Aladdin said.

My whole life I have been preparing for this opportunity, I just didn't know it. Crazy how that works! We all have different life experiences with different stories to tell, but this is my story. My story is just another piece to Gods great design. When we the human collective finally bring all our unique pieces together, Gods grand design is easier to see and understand. We all are unique and special, but flawed. But know this, our flaws that are shunned, ridiculed, misjudged and unloved, is what actually makes the rigid edge on the side of the puzzle piece. That rigid piece is what miraculously makes it all fit together to make the puzzle complete. No matter what flaws we all carry, at the end of the day, we are all part of Gods master plan.

My name is Sunni Alene Norvell and I can thank you enough for reading my work. As an editor, I'm pretty sure you have your work cut out for you and your plate is full. However, this sure wasn't easy for me either, being I'm a single full time mom, business owner, social media influencer and master dish and laundry washer. But, this world doesn't have enough compassion in it, as much as I would like to see and dammit, I don't care what obstacles are in my daily life, I want to help and I can, so the dishes can wait. God- shine your light into this world and show us your love, amen.
